Dear Mr. Fornof: Josiah

The letters that you requested me to send to selected members of the United States Congress have been sent via registered mail, this day, Monday, February 1, 2016 to: Rep. Gus Bilirakis; Speaker Paul Ryan; Senator Marco Rubio; Senator Bill Nelson; Senator Orrin G. Hatch, President Pro Tempore of the Senate; and Vice President Joe Biden, in his role as President of the Senate.

Enclosed herewith is a copy of each of the aforesaid letters, scanned from the originals, which you will note are each signed (with an indigo-colored felt-tipped pen) and dated, with the time of my signing noted as well, and a scanned copy of my photo ID, my Florida Driver License. As you know, that brings the full weight of the law to bear on the matter.

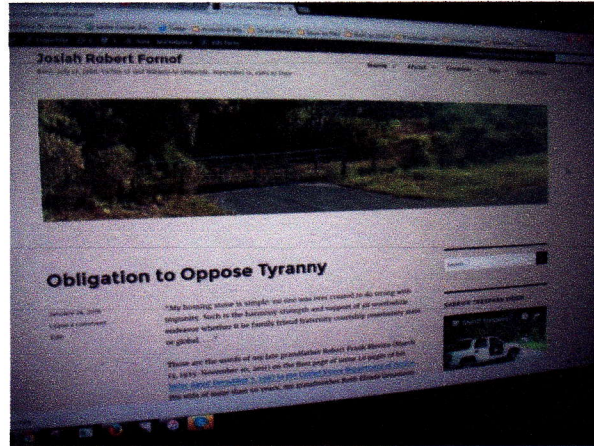

Each letter was printed on vellum paper, as this letter is so printed as well. The three pages were left unstapled, for the truth is not to be bound or truncated. Each letter is accompanied by a new USB (flash) drive. With each one, I slit the package from behind to remove the flash drive from the package, uploaded the two documents specified – your grandfather's letter dated December 7, 1997 to the United States Department of Justice and your November 17, 2015 FOIA appeal – and then reinserted it in the package, sealing the slit with a little pink label. Then I put each one in a simple plastic zipper sandwich bag because I was concerned the little label might come undone and get stuck on something.

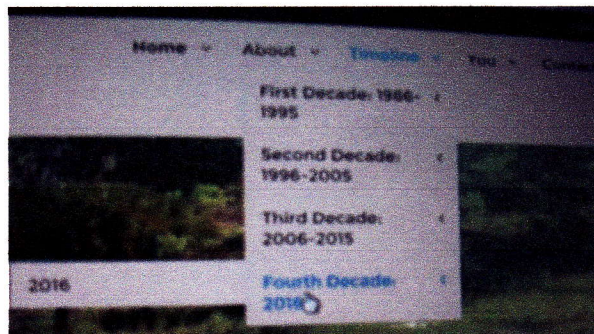

Last night before going to bed, I printed each letter, then left them to sit overnight, partly so the ink could dry thoroughly. This morning after my daily Bible reading, I finished processing them. I took the stack of letters to the kitchen table and signed them there, using my new cell phone to check the time of each signing.

After that, I brought the stack of letters back to my room and scanned them, page by page, then saved them to PDF format, which is the format from which I printed your copies. As each copy was printing, I uploaded a copy of it to your Josiah Robert Fornof web site. This will give you an idea of what the web site looks like on the computer screen:

A visitor can hover their mouse over the menu bar to bring up a drop-down menu:

Clicking on the "2016" link for example opens that page, with a list of the uploaded, hyperlinked documents. Then, of course, a visitor can click on each one to open the PDF of that document.

They can view, save to their system, download and print, and email the link... I am continuing to explore improvements, but the bare bones site is up and running.

The "You" menu item opens up to "Your Obligation" and "What You Can Do to Help." Those are not filled in yet.

The online form they can fill out and submit is simple:

I arranged to take some time off of work today to get all of these mailings out. I also need to finish up with editing the paperback book manuscript and get that sent to you soon. Here's what the proof copy looks like:

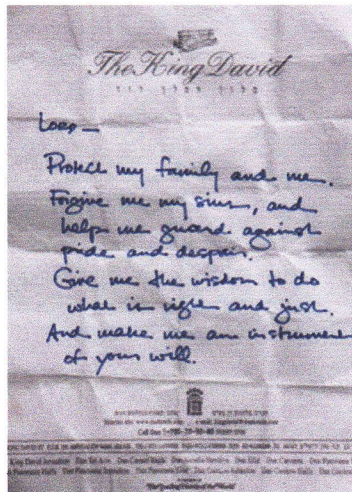

The full cover, front and back is:

Now that this project for you is done, I will be getting back to the next book, an overview of the series. At present, the cover image is as follows:

The book is to be written to BROTUS in my voice. I plan to frame it around the prayer he prayed at the Western Wall in Jerusalem on July 24, 2008:

As an overview, a trailer book, that book is outside of the series proper. It will be like a trailer and will also contain an overview of the books in the series:

Book 1 (Prologue): The Glorious Liberty: Of the Children of God

Book 2: I Will Declare Thy Name: Unto My Brethren

Book 3: King of Glory: The Heavens Declare

Book 4: Sounding the Clear Call: To Fast and Pray for Peace on Earth

Book 5: Their Cry Came Up Unto God: By Reason of the Bondage

Book 6: As a Bride: Adorns Herself with Jewels

Book 7: As a Bridegroom: Decks Himself with Ornaments

Book 8: There Was a War in Heaven: And the Great Dragon was Cast Out

Book 9: The Kingdoms of Our Lord: Living Blood and Bread Covenant

Book 10 (Opus): Praise God in the Sanctuary: Praise Him in the Firmament of His Power

It is most likely in the next book where I will include your vision report. It seems to fit best there, along with my recent dream which relates. A tentative cover for that book follows:

Here's a picture of me holding your new niece Corinne:

She was about ten days old there, and she wasn't all that happy at that moment, but she is a sweetie and has won everyone's hearts. There is another picture of her right after birth, when Jason was comforting her, and one of them snuggled up together (their usual). He sure is enjoying this new side of fatherhood in his 40s!

Today was my last day of medicine for the labyrinthitis, and I really am finally starting to feel well again.

Thank you for asking me to undertake this very interesting project on your behalf. It has proven to be a very worthwhile endeavor for my purposes as well, all for the glory of the Risen King!

We are blessed! *Love,
Mom*
